

National Medical Laboratory Week

Crossword

Solve the crossword inspired by laboratory science terms

DOWN

1. Type of stain used on blood smears in order to identify cells, such as malarial parasites
4. Essential minerals—like sodium, calcium, and potassium
6. Critically important test in assessing renal function
9. A procedure to remove cells, tissue or fluid for examination
11. Sequencing completed when looking for a genetic cause
13. Symbol of the profession

ACROSS

2. Safety device
3. Device used for measuring the concentration of particles in a solution
5. Health and safety communication system
7. The process of obtaining intravenous access for the purpose of venous blood sampling
8. Tissue preparation technique
10. Process that results in the multiplying of micro-organisms under laboratory conditions
12. Mechanism that leads to the cessation of bleeding from a blood vessel
14. 55% of whole blood
15. Primary objective in all aspects of work